

MEET ANTONI

PROUD TEAM COLLECTIVE MEMBER

Antoni is the newest team member at The Real Media Collective – a recent marketing graduate who brings fresh ideas to the table each and every day.

His enthusiasm and motivation when working in a team environment is electric, bringing out the best from those around him.

An avid problem solver, Antoni is always trying to find the best solution that matches workplace dynamics to ensure effective results. He has a raft of responsibilities within his new role, however most critically will be working with our Members and making sure all content, research and materials are made available to you.

Feel free to give Antoni a ring for any content, campaign or research needs or simply to say hello.
